SHIPPING STRIKE PREDICTED BY CIO PRESIDENT

Deadline Sunday Night; Schwellenbach Appeals To Operators and Unions

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—CIO President Philip Murray said tonight that "in all likelihood" there will be a walkout of CIO unions if the Maritime industry when contracts expire Sunday night.

Murray told a news conference in the event employers and the unions fail to come to agreement by then, the unions would have "the support of the CIO."

Murray said that ship owners have shown "unwillingness" to bargain on a new contract while the Taft-Hartley labor bill is under consideration by President Truman.

Despite the gloomy picture by Murray, Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach appealed to the ship owners on the Atlantic and Gulf coasts and to three CIO unions to continue under present contracts while the Labor department tries its hand at conciliating.

He said that a work stoppage "at this time would seriously damage the American merchant marine and would seriously embarrass our Government in the carrying out of its foreign commitments."

Schwellenbach wired the presidents of the National Maritime Union, the American communications association, and the Marine Engineers Beneficial association asking them to continue their present contracts with Atlantic and Gulf coast operators.

Schwellenbach sent his telegram after conferences between conciliation director Edgar L. Warren and Harry Bridges, president of the CI Longshoremen, and Hugh Bryson, head of the Marine Cooks and Stewards.

The Longshoremen already have agreed to a one-year extension, but it is dependent on similar settlements by the other CIO maritime unions.

Schwellenbach asked all parties to maintain status quo in order that further negotiations may have (Continued on Page Thirteen)

Fate of Passengers Unknown; Big DC4 Short of Destination

LEESBURG, Va., June 14—(Saturday)—(AP)—Lloyd Kelly, Leesburg police officer, said today that the wreckage of a missing Capital Airline plane had been located between Purcellville and Hillsboro, Va.

Kelly said he had no information as to whether any survivors had been located.

The plane had disappeared while en route from Chicago to Washington with 47 passengers and a crew of three.

Purcellville is nine miles west of Leesburg.

Kelly said he was advised that fire trucks and ambulances had been headed toward the wreck.

The plane was hours overdue on a Friday the 13th flight from Chicago to Washington.

Ironically the missing plane may be down in the same general area where a plane of the same airline, also known as the Pennsylvania-Central, crashed on Aug. 31, 1940, killing 25 persons. The victims then included Senator Ernest Lundeen of Minnesota.

The plane, carrying 47 passengers, including a baby, and a crew of three, left Chicago at 2:45 p. m. (Pottstown time) and was due in Washington at 7:35 p. m.

Various reports in the Hillsboro area sent State police, other officers and citizens into a wide-spread search.

A mail carrier there said he had seen flashes in the sky after hearing the sound of motors.

Police authorities in the area embracing the Eastern Panhandle of West Virginia, Western Maryland and Northern Virginia shortly had out search-nig parties.

Mayor G. P. Morison, Charles Town, W. Va., received a report that a plane had crashed between Harpers Ferry, W. Va., and Hillsboro, and sent officers to investigate.

Maryland State police at Brunswick, Md., also had a report of a crash "17 miles south." This would be in the vicinity of Hillsboro.

After cruising a 15-mile section along the Maryland-Virginia line, Maryland State police reported they had been able to "find out little."

As authorities pieced together all these reports, they expressed growing belief that they might have established the general area of a crash.

When the plane last reported to Washington airport, it was over Martinsburg, W. Va., about 65 miles out of Washington. The time was 7:13 p. m. There was nothing to indicate that the big transport was in trouble then.

Capital Airlines identified the pilot of the missing plane as Horace Stark, Washington. The co-pilot was R. N. Crenkmore, and the hostess Peggy Walls, both also of Washington.

The plane was the same type which figured in two major air disasters recently.

Forty-two persons died at New York's La Guardia field May 27 when a DC4 crashed during a take-off. A day later a similar type plane crashed at Port Deposit, Md., killing 53 persons.

The planes figuring in the New York and Maryland accidents, as well as the missing Capital Airliner, had been converted from Army C54s.

Although it had been raining in the general area of Washington, the weather bureau there had reported that the weather had not been too severe.

STATE SENATE APPROVES HIKE IN TEACHER PAY

Upper Chamber Passes Bill Setting Salaries In $1950-$3400 Range

HARRISBURG, June 13 (AP)—Ignoring last-ditch objections from Democrats, the Senate passed 43-4 tonight the Administration's $173,000,000 school pay program boosting the mandated teacher pay scale in Pennsylvania outside Philadelphia and Pittsburgh from $1400-$2700 to $1950-$3400 a year.

The upper branch returned the controversial education issue to the House in the waning hours of the 1947 session for agreement on amendments, one of which dropped proposed optional merit increases.

Both branches, meanwhile, pushed hard to clean up pending legislation although Rep. Herbert P. Sorg, Republican House leader, said a recess over the week-end now is a certainty, while Sen. Clarence D. Becker (R-Lebanon) Senate caucus chairman, explained "We have too many loose ends to clean up."

A conference was expected to settle final differences between the House and Senate on the school measure, with leaders on both sides of the capitol explaining such a move is necessary to smooth out "rough spots."

The lower branch, meanwhile, sent to Gov. James H. Duff a measure carrying out another of his education objectives—establishment of a new three-member state tax equalization board with broad powers to determine market values of real estate for use in calculation of state school subsidies. The vote on the Senate-passed bill was 197-7.

A third plank in the school plan—legislation broadening the tax base of local communities including school districts—also headed for a Senate vote. It would permit enactment of wage, sales, amusement income and other levies not now used by the commonwealth to augment local revenues and relieve the tax burden on real estate.

Four Democrats voted against the teacher pay bill. They were Sen. John H. Dent, the minority party floor leader and Joseph M. Barr, Elmer J. Holland and William S. Rahsauer, all of Allegheny county.

"This is what is known as a teachers pay raise bill," asserted Dent in opening the debate on House-passed Bill 417—the measure which originally called for an increase in minimums from the present $1400 to $2400 a year.

"This bill does not do what it is supposed to do," Dent claimed, adding "at this time we must do something more than a patchwork job in our educational program—there must be equalization of standards both in the payment of teachers' salaries and the education of our children."

"I don't believe the teachers will be satisfied; they felt they were going to receive a minimum salary somewhere around $2500."

The measure proposed the new pay scale, basing an instructor's starting pay for the first time on an educational basis—$1950 for those with standard certificates, $2000 for those with college training and $2200 for those with masters' degrees. Increments of $150 at the rate of five for certificated teachers and eight for college-trained instructors also would be established.

On the subsidy side, the commonwealth would be obligated to pay from $700 to $2200 a teaching unit depending on the (Continued on Page Thirteen)

Council Adopts Contract System Of Garbage Collection in Borough

Ringling the Rocks at School Picnic

Two hundred fifty-eight pupils, representing eight grades of the Lower Pottsgrove Consolidated school, scampered around Ringing Rocks park in yesterday's school picnic, taking time out to hear Kay Genaria, Hildale, test out the famous rocks with a hammer to hear if they really rang. They did, to the delight of the school children.

PLAN TO EXTEND SEWERS ALSO GETS APPROVAL

Bill for Trash Removal Will Be Handled by Municipality, Group Decides

Borough council, at a special meeting last night at borough hall, took action favoring the contract system under the new garbage collection ordinance and approved a recommendation of the sewer committee on adoption of plans for a comprehensive addition to the borough's sewer system in the Northern sections of the Eighth and Tenth wards.

The other item listed for the session was a resolution providing for the laying of sidewalks on the north side of West High street, between Prince and Rice streets. The latter action was taken without any discussion.

The session was listed for 7:30 p. m. but the absence of President C. Roy Bush and Councilman J. Max Creswell, who accompanied Burgess William A. Griffith on a trip to Washington yesterday, caused a delay. It was not until 8:30 o'clock that the meeting was called to order.

Chairman Creswell, of the sanitary committee, declared that his committee had decided to recommend adoption by council of the contract system of collection. He said council also must decide on the manner of collection whether by borough employees or by collectors. Another question was whether there is to be a separation of the ashes and garbage composed of organic matter.

Creswell said it was felt by members of the committee that the contract system would be the cheapest at the present time. He claimed under the municipal system it would require the purchase by the borough of at least five trucks to collect the garbage and he estimated five men would be needed on each truck. He said the wage scale for men working on garbage collection trucks is at least $1 per hour.

William Twaddell, of the Fourth ward, a member of the sanitary committee, insisted that council should be given cost figures under the two systems.

A suggestion was made by Harry E. Yerger, of the Third ward, that council should let the citizens decide which system they want. The proposal was quashed by Borough Solicitor C. Edmund Wells (Continued on Page Thirteen)

Harley Is Convinced Miners' Boss Lewis Wants Coal Strike

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Chairman Hartley (R-N.J.) of the House labor committee, said tonight that John L. Lewis "is going to call the United Mine workers on strike—make no mistake about that."

And he declared that unless the Taft-Hartley labor bill becomes law, the United States "will be powerless to deal with Mr. Lewis" or any other labor leader with "wide power over our economy."

While Hartley expressed this view in a speech for the radio, some Government labor experts who have been analyzing the bill said it could not stop a mine walkout. These experts, who withheld use of their names, called the measure unworkable.

Other presidential advisers, however, dispute the idea that the bill could not be useful to prevent a coal strike. They are reported urging President Truman to sign it and to be taking the view that if he vetoes it, Congress would override him and make it law anyway.

Hartley advised Mayor William O'Dwyer of New York, who has spoken against the bill, to stick to running the city without "telling the Congress of the United States how it shall legislate."

"Mayor O'Dwyer," he said, "has made a very studied effort to make this problem a partisan issue, but I would like to remind him that the labor bill which is now before the President, passed through both houses of Congress by a substantial majority of both parties in both houses."

"This bill," he added, "is not anti-labor, anti-capital, or anti-public; it is good sound Americanism embodying the rules of equity, justice and fair play."

For one thing, he said, the bill (Continued on Page Thirteen)

TRIO SENTENCED IN VET ROBBERY

6 Months to Year Terms Given Youths Who Beat, Took Cash From Buddy

By Staff Correspondent

NORRISTOWN, June 13—Three ex-servicemen who beat up and robbed a former buddy were each committed to the county prison for a term of from six months to one year today by Judge Harold G. Knight.

The trio who pleaded guilty to robbing Rudolph H. Pace, 18, of Pittston, were: Emil Bradley, 23, McKeesport; Robert J. Graper, 19, Pittsburgh; and Bernard Conley, 20, New Kensington.

Pace told the court that he was granted a terminal leave from Valley Forge General Hospital May 23 and had gone to the Reading Railroad station at Phoenixville to purchase a ticket when he met the trio.

He had $82 in cash and a check for $175 in his pocket when Graper sat down beside him and said that he and his companions were going (Continued on Page Fourteen)

Weekend Will Bring Two Special Observances

Pottstonians will celebrate two holidays, Flag Day and Father's Day, this weekend.

Although no Flag Day observance will be held locally, Burgess William A. Griffith yesterday asked all residents of Pottstown to honor the occasion by displaying the American flag.

All Pottstown churches will mark Father's Day tomorrow with either special services or with special mention of the day in the sermons.

The Pottstown lodge of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will hold their annual service commemorating Flag Day immediately following its meeting Monday night.

Little Lady of Class of 1887 Joins Gala School Reunion

By ED ROSENBERG (Mercury Staff Writer)

To revive old memories of their school days, more than 600 alumni of Pottstown Senior High school, came to Sunnybrook last night, for a gala evening of entertainment and dancing, with representatives of virtually all classes from 1887 to 1947 on hand.

Dignified businessmen and their wives, and older men and women whose high school career ended before the turn of the century, all found renewed vigor in their class reunion and danced to the music of Woody Lehn's band until long after midnight.

His Day Has Arrived! Cloning Reporter to Turn 'Pro' Under Big Top Today

Hurry, hurry, circus day is here at last.

And the happiest kid in town is Mercury Scribe Frank Dostal. For when the band strikes up for the opening pageant this afternoon, he'll appear as a circus clown.

Last night he traveled to the Dailey Brothers circus in Lebanon to be fitted for his wardrobe, and at 3 o'clock this afternoon when the first show begins, he'll be all set and rarin' to go.

Arriving at clown alley last night, Frank was taken in tow by Annabelle and Reuban Ray, two of the outstanding fun-makers of the circus, who showed him how he would be made up and dressed for the big show.

"It was swell," he said on his return. "Everything should be perfect for tomorrow."

When Dostal finishes wowing the circus fans this afternoon, he'll be well prepared to loosen up those aching muscles and clean off his show make-up.

This was assured yesterday when he received a neatly-boxed assortment of massaging preparations. It came from Mrs. J. Robert Gray, of Schuylkill road, Kenilworth. The box contained:

One bottle of alcohol compound (for rub-down or sponge bath); one jar of cold cream; one jar of foot balm.

"She must be clowning," Dostal said of his donor, then quickly added, "I'll probably need it."

Asks Ban on Theater For Wallace Speech

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—The American Anti-Communist association moved today to halt the scheduled Monday night speech of Henry A. Wallace, whose methods, the association said, "incite human emotions toward riot and insurrection."

The organization asked Federal District court to deny Wallace the use of the Watergate amphitheater, where his speech is scheduled to take place.

The action was brought against Secretary of the Interior Julius Krug, whose department controls the outdoor theater.

The court petition said the southern conference for human welfare, which is sponsoring Wallace, was listed among Communist front organizations in a House un-American activities committee report.

Black Cats Had Their Day, But Most Folks Were Like Plane Pilot—Refused to Be Jinxed

By HARRY TOLAND (Mercury Staff Writer)

Although correspondents far and wide kept their eyes peeled yesterday for cases of lightning striking persons whose paths had just been crossed by ebony cats and their ears tuned for the thump of a paint bucket hitting the head of an under-ladder stroller, all this alertness produced little.

There were those who had their bad moments during yesterday's unluckiest of all combinations, Friday the 13th, but misfortune fell to none who bridged the code of lucky behavior, so far as was reported.

Undeniably some had their rough moments, though.

For instance John Coulston, Philadelphia, found himself yesterday night at twilight in a position which would have caused a beards of sweat to stand out on a superstitious brow.

Coulston and his young son, John, happened at that time to be flying in their light single-engine airplane over the vicinity of Pottstown.

What possessed Coulston ever to take off from the Chester field on Friday the 13th no one will ever know. It is entirely probable he completely forgot what day it was and blithely soared into the wild blue.

At any rate there he was right over Pottstown when suddenly the enormity of his risk dawned upon him. He was 1500 feet above the earth on about the unluckiest day there is.

Coulston, when he realized what he was doing, lost very little time in getting out of the hands of the elements as quickly as his light plane could land. Not bothering with anything so time-wasting as looking for an airfield, the pilot headed toward the nearest open space and prepared to go in for a landing.

The place he had chosen turned out to be a sloping field surrounded by woods in back of the property of Frank Detweiler, 615 State street.

After a safe landing, the relieved pilot and his son clambered out and tied the plane to a tree before explaining, "No, we didn't have to land. We were in trouble and we don't know anybody in Pottstown. We just left like landing."

Coulston later admitted that it was possibly not the best landing area in the world or even in Montgomery county, but reiterated that "he felt like landing there."

Luck didn't forsake the father and son at that point. They were able to get a room for the night at a local hotel.

Today, without the curse of Friday the 13th weighing on him like ice on his wings, Coulston will rise into the ozone, a happy and unburdened man.

After that hear about Tommy Schiel.

Legislators Hear Pleas Against Evictions, Suggest Wage Survey

Replies of two Pennsylvania congressmen and Federal housing officials in Washington yesterday to queries of a four-man Pottstown delegation seeking the answer to the problem of the eviction of 92 Penn. Village families centered around a suggestion for a borough-wide wage survey.

Both Sam Francis J. Myers and Rep. Samuel K. McConnell expressed interest in the situation, but said they would need further information before taking any action. They agreed to contact housing officials in Washington at their earliest convenience.

Voicing the plea of the 92 families for either continuation of leases in Penn. Village or suitable housing elsewhere in Pottstown were Burgess William A. Griffith; C. Roy Bush, borough council head; Councilman J. Max Creswell and Ralph H. Spare, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

To the congressmen and housing officials, Burgess Griffith, heading the delegation, pleaded for an extension of time for the stricken families. He commented that in a year or two the housing shortage in Pottstown may be lightened, but that at the present it is acute. Families forced from their homes now would have great difficulty finding another residence, he said.

John Eagan, a commissioner of the Federal Public Housing Authority, told the Pottstonians that if a survey of the salaries in Pottstown indicated that the total average was above the average of the families on the eviction list, the evictions must be withheld.

The highest wage earners among the group should make an immediate and determined effort to locate new homes. Eagan warned because they will be the first to receive notice.

The survey will have to be made by a "trained economist" he pointed out. He added that even if the survey were completed, it would mean considerably that the action would be delayed.

The four delegates to the capital yesterday morning and were there during the entire day.

Atomic Energy Commission Faces 30% Budget Slash

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Budget cuts ranging from 30 percent for the atomic energy commission to 1.8 percent for the Veterans administration were ordered today by the House appropriations committee.

The committee acted in sending to the House floor an $8167,869,027 appropriation bill supplying funds for the fiscal year starting July 1 for 33 so-called "independent offices"—the agencies not connected with any of the regular departments headed by Cabinet secretaries.

The total of new appropriations is less than President Truman asked by $330,540,732, or 3.9 percent.

This reduction brings to about $3,580,000,000 the total appropriation cuts approved in the House to date from the President's $37,500,000,000 budget, with only three comparatively small appropriation bills still to come.

The Republicans had set $6,000,000,000 as their savings goal for the year. They claim that the actual savings will be much larger than the $3,580,000,000 in appropriations cuts because of cancellations of previous appropriations and other reasons. Democrats reply that a number of the claimed savings are "phony."

The Senate, which so far has acted on only two of the eight major appropriation bills passed by the House, is generally expected to restore a part of the funds which the House counted as savings.

Its appropriations committee today put back $54,116,840 of the money the House had cut out of the Interior department's supply bill, approving a total of $215,530,353. The principal increases are for western reclamation and power projects whose elimination by the House aroused protests from Westerners and from Mr. Truman himself.

SENATE-HOUSE UNIT OKAYS RENT HIKE WITH LEASE TIEUP
WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—A bill raising rents 15 percent if both landlord and tenant agree on a two-year lease was approved by a Senate-House conference committee late today.

The measure, a compromise between differing House and Senate bills, would extend rent controls through next Feb. 29.

Rep. Wolcott (R-Mich.) told newsmen the legislation may reach the White House by Friday. He said the House expects to pass it Wednesday, and the Senate may act Thursday.

Other major provisions of the measure:

1. Controls would be dropped immediately on homes renting for $225 a month or more, on new housing and newly-rented dwellings, remodeled houses and hotels.
2. Eviction proceedings would be governed by State laws.
3. Rent increases or removal of ceilings would be recommended by advisory boards in each rental defense area, subject to action within 30 days by the rent administrator.
4. The rent administrator would be Frank Cresson, whose office of housing expediter would be liquidated June 30 under a bill passed by the House.

Compromises Ease Political Unrest In Czechoslovakia

By JAMES M. LONG
PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia, June 13 (AP)—Political tension between Czechs and Slovaks, which caused reports abroad of a possible Communist coup in this country, appeared today to have been glossed over by compromise decisions among leaders of the six parties which make up the national front government.

Tension has been building up for weeks in a disagreement over the trial and execution of the Catholic Joseph Tiso who was war-time puppet president of Slovakia, in the fight over the proposed expulsion of the Slovak judge who tried him, and in the dispute over the relations between the Slovak and Czech halves of the republic in the forthcoming constitution.

President Eduard Benes has spoken of the tension openly. So has Communist Premier Klement Gottwald.

When the London Daily Mail correspondent reported to his paper that there was some speculation that Communists might take advantage of the situation to make another move in a series of Balkan coups, virtually all Prague papers reprinted it.

CTK, the official Czech news agency, commented that "the allegation for instance that the Soviet Union is preparing an intervention in this country is fantastic. No less ridiculous are reports of an impending ban on the Slovak Democratic party."

The tension came to a head this week at a meeting of leaders of all the parties governing Czechoslovakia—the Communists who polled 38 percent of the votes in the past election, the Czech socialists who ran

Arabs to Boycott Holy Land Probe

LAKE SUCCESS, June 13 (AP)—The Arab higher committee for Palestine formally notified Secretary-General Trygve Lie today that it would boycott the United Nations Holy Land Inquiry.

Lie immediately transmitted the text of the committee's communication to the chairman of the inquiry group which now is in Jerusalem and will begin its work next week.

In a cable to Lie signed by Jamaal Hussein, vice chairman of the Arab higher committee, the Palestine Arabs said that after careful study they had "resolved" to abstain from collaboration and "desist from appearing before" the U.N. inquiry commission.

The Arab higher committee said it had decided to boycott the inquiry for these main reasons:

1. "United Nations refusal to adopt the natural course of inserting termination of the (British) mandate and declaration of independence in the agenda of the special United Nations session and in the terms of reference (to the commission)."- 2. "Failure to detach Jewish world refugees from the Palestine problem."

- 3. "Replacing the interests of Palestine inhabitants by insertion of world religious interests although these are not subject to contention."

DE GASPERI WINS AGAIN
ROME, June 13 (AP)—Premier De Gasperi's new government won another victory tonight when the constituent assembly voted, 248 to 175, to table Communist demands for an inquiry into charges that an investigation of rationing abuses had been obstructed.

The U. S. produces annually some 60 billion pounds of skim milk, of which about 50 billion is fed to animals and poultry.

B. F. Goodrich announces a big reduction in the price of the famous Silvertown tire!

Yes, you can now buy all popular sizes of the tire that outwears prewar tires at actually less than prewar prices! And despite higher manufacturing costs too.

One of the things that makes possible this huge price reduction is the tremendous demand for the new Silvertown—greater than for any tire B. F. Goodrich ever produced. In fact, more miles have been driven on this new tire than any other tire introduced since the war.

Annual Bible School
To Open Monday;
Leaders Are Listed

The fifth annual vacation Bible school, sponsored by St. Paul's Reformed, Brethren in Christ and St. Peter's churches of Stowe, will open on Monday at 9 a. m. Sessions will be held for two and a half hours, Monday through Friday, from 9 a. m. to 11:30 a. m., for boys and girls from three to 15 years of age.

The school will function departmentally with the following courses and leaders:

Nursery (three years and under): "God's Helpers Care for Us"; Mrs. Leonard Bechtel, Mrs. John Wender, Mrs. Irvin Stetler, Mrs. William Fisher and Miss Dolores Wright.

Beginners (4 and 5 years): "God Gives Us Ourselves"; Mrs. T. H. Meeker, Mrs. Joseph Landis, Mrs. William Pierce, Mrs. Roy Endy, Miss Marjorie Meeker, Miss Barbara Fischer, Miss Jane Mest and Miss Betty Bernhard.

Primary (public school Grades 1, 2 and 3): "Learning Of Jesus"; Mrs. George Francis, Mrs. Howard Reissnyder, Mrs. Charles Demish, Miss June Edwards, Miss Esther Buckwalter and Miss Carmelita Shaner.

Junior (public school grades 4, 5 and 6): "Bible People and How They Lived"; Mrs. Robert Bernhard, Miss Kathryn Ann Climenhaga, Mrs. Lester Yerger, Miss Sara Jane Kapenstein, Mrs. G. D. Levengood and Miss Peggy Schneider.

Intermediate (public school Grade 7 and upward): "Future Homemakers"; Mrs. John Climenhaga and Pastor Kenneth R. Anderson. Closing exercises will be held on Wednesday, July 2, at 7:30 p. m. The school will close with a picnic on Thursday, July 3. Daily offerings of money and clothing will be received for Church World Relief. A special offering will be received at the closing exercises to defray the expenses of the school.

Certificates of progress will be issued to boys and girls maintaining regular attendance and good work throughout the three-week period. Robert Trace, Laris Eddinger and Dale Wert will serve as secretaries of the school. Clarence Wentzel will direct games and help with the transportation of youngsters from outlying areas.

Borough Briefs

Justice of the Peace Raymond C. Kelley, of the Second ward, will send summonses to three alleged traffic law violators.

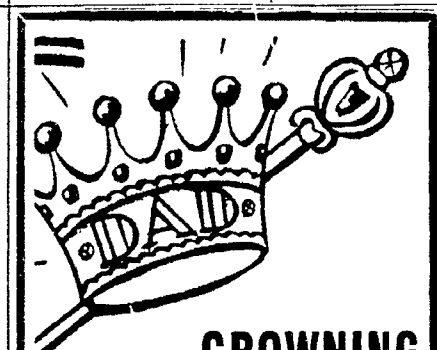

Warren Barrett, of Linfield, is charged by Patrolman Robert Houser with passing a red traffic signal at High and Charlotte streets yesterday morning at 7:45 o'clock. He was operating a bus of the Pottstown Rapid Transit company, 1423 High street, east on High street.

Patrolman Harold E. Hahn preferred a charge of failing to heed an officer's signal against George H. Jones, of 607 Water street. The alleged violation was committed on Wednesday, June 4, at 3:18 p. m., while Jones was driving a car on East High street.

Carl L. Williams, of Sinking Springs RD 2, is charged by Patrolman Hahn with speeding at 2 p. m. Thursday while driving west on High street between Manatawny and Glasgow streets.

CAR DAMAGES METER

Fire Chief Richard E. Lindauer reported to police Thursday afternoon that a car had knocked over a parking meter on South Charlotte street. Borough Electrician William H. Price will make repairs.

Taft Truman's Target Because of Influence

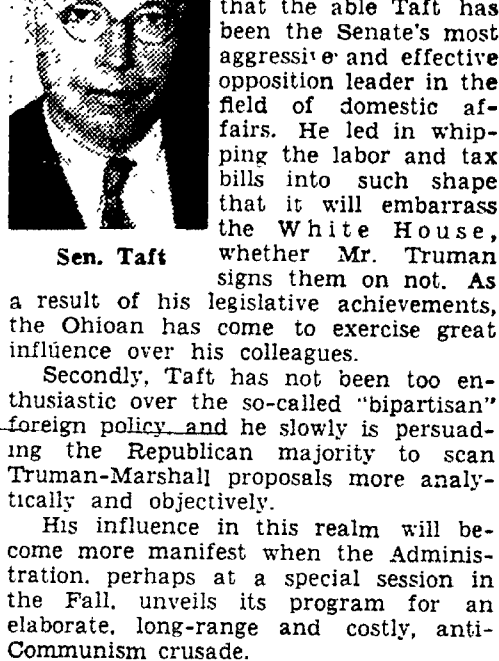

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON, June 13.—"Why did President Truman single out Senator Taft of Ohio for his recent attack?" asks O.R.P. of Columbus, Ohio. "Why didn't he answer criticism by Senators Bridges or Wherry, Congressman Halleck, or even Henry Wallace?"

Answer: The principal reason, perhaps, is that the able Taft has been the Senate's most aggressive and effective opposition leader in the field of domestic affairs. He led in whipping the labor and tax bills into shape that it will embarrass the White House whether Mr. Truman signs them or not. As a result of his legislative achievements, the Ohioan has come to exercise great influence over his colleagues.

Secondly, Taft has not been too enthusiastic over the so-called "bipartisan" foreign policy, and he slowly is persuading the Republican majority to scan Truman-Marshall proposals more analytically and objectively.

His influence in this realm will become more manifest when the Administration, perhaps at a special session in the Fall, unveils its program for an elaborate, long-range and costly, anti-Communism crusade.

Against Truman's Doctrine

To the Editor: The so-called Truman Doctrine, cheered by the most greedy and undemocratic forces everywhere, was made to divide, but to unite, the world. It was a declaration of war. A war to death by the oligarchies of great wealth against the march of the common people towards new forms of democracy.

Under the Truman dispensation of pouring millions of dollars into the bankrupt treasuries of a corrupt Greek monarch and an equally corrupt Kuomintang (both engaged in the gory business of mass killing of their fellow citizens), and the notoriously autocratic and opportunistic Turkish regime, a wave of repressive measures here at home and in other countries is on. Freedom of thought is on the verge of being declared a crime.

Instead of giving full support to the U. N. organization, the Truman Doctrine stands for passing it or relegating it to mere recipient of information after a fat accomplishment by the American Government.

Pensions as Bar to Communism

To the Editor: A poverty stricken world is rapidly being engulfed by Communism. The first place to eradicate this menace is right here in America where we have—thank God—ample resources, production facilities, science and wealth to do the job. The first step to be taken is the enactment by this Republican congress of a new, sound pay-as-you-go federal retirement pension, free from state and county domination, and covering all our citizens.

Such a pension program would remove the fear of poverty and suffering in old age that now plagues millions of our citizens. This would permit these people to vote as their conscience dictates—as free and loyal Americans.

Signs Need Repainting

To the Editor: It's nice to see American Business club to donate street signs to the borough, but it seems to me the borough should see that they're kept painted and readable from a distance at all times.

THE SON OF MAN SHALL SEND FORTH HIS ANGELS, AND THEY SHALL GATHER OUT OF HIS KINGDOM ALL THINGS THAT OFFEND, AND THEM WHICH DO INIQUITY.

Matt. 13:41

YOU VIOLATE GOD'S LAWS AND SET THE STAGE FOR SIN IN YOUR LIFE AND MODERN SOCIETY WHEN YOU:

Have only a polite interest in spiritualizing your bodily temple for its use in Christian citizenship.

Think the voice of the people is the voice of God.

Try to be a good fellow, forgetful of your ideals.

Say words which please and not those which are true.

Talk to confuse or to prevent taking a stand on an issue.

Do nothing about our selfish competitive order which is the chief cause of sin.

Sell your virtues to feed your body.

Skimp, do poor work, or loaf on the job.

Poison the air with lies and hate.

Allow your fine virtues of patriotism, heroism, self-sacrifice and high ideals to be prostituted and turned toward destruction.

Contribute toward keeping the fruits of science and technology from passing on to ordinary folks.

Allow yourself to be drawn into the whirlpool of legalized struggle of men and women trying to get the better of one another.

Fail to believe what God has to say.

YOUR HEALTH

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

PEOPLE sometimes ask me why it is that medical science is never content with the remedy against a given disease. Why is it that our research scientists keep looking for others even when fairly efficient ones are already available?

Well, in the first place, that's how we make progress. If we keep looking we may find something better. In the second place, as I've told you before, doctors are like generals. They want a lot of weapons so as to be able to attack a disease from many different directions. In the third place, people are different even when they have the same disease. One may respond well to a treatment which has drawbacks for another.

These are some of the reasons why the medical world is elated over a new weapon against anemias of the type known as macrocytic anemia which has recently been added to our disease-fighting equipment. In all anemias there is a lessening of the coloring matter of the blood but in the macrocytic type there is also deformation of the red blood cells. They are improperly shaped and much larger than normal. This is the sort of thing that occurs in pernicious anemia, as well as in another disorder called sprue, prevalent in the tropics and sometimes during pregnancy.

Formerly these conditions could be treated only by administration of liver extract. Now we have a new substance called folic acid which is effective in combating them. Folic acid is a part of the Vitamin B-complex.

Pernicious anemia causes a lessening in the number of red blood cells, loss of weight and strength, a peculiar lemon-yellow color of the skin, as well as some damage to the spinal cord resulting in symptoms affecting the nervous system.

Tricks From Noutchere

ONE OF the most amazing performances possible to a deck of cards is the production of a lot of tricks which at the beginning would seem impossible to take. As the play proceeds, one development after another creates new trick-takers for the fortunate declarer if he notes the way that small cards get promoted and then makes maximum use of the unexpected opportunities which seem to give him tricks that came from nowhere at all.

Who would ever think South was destined to make a small slam and this layout after West led the spade 10? Surely not South. The only positive tricks in sight were two in spades, three in hearts, two in diamonds and two in clubs, just enough for game. But after his spade 10 brought the K and he played his A, he pepped up. Guessing that this might have been a short-suit lead, he led the spade 3, the 9 falling to the Q. This marked a finesse of the spade 6 against the 7, and the 8 made his fourth trick there.

The diamond 10 then was sent through to the K. Marking West now for the Q, he scented a squeeze chance when the club 3 was returned, so won with the A. He finessed the diamond J, felled the Q with the A to set up his 9, then led to the heart A. With two red nines and the club Q-J, he now applied the pressure, leading the diamond. West, with three hearts and the club K, could see that a heart discard would set up the dummy's last heart, so tossed off the club K in the hope that East had the Q. South then got the rest of the tricks, but so would he if West had discarded a heart: nil that event, a club discard from dummy would have enabled the heart K, Q and 8 to complete the hand.

PREVIEW NIGHTS

PIC OF THE WEEK: "The Bachelor and the Bobby-Soxer" (Cary Grant-Myrna Loy-Shirley Temple). High voltage comedy that fully justifies its press agents' superlatives.

RECOMMENDED: "Bob, Son of Battle" (Lon McCallister-Peggy Ann Garner-Edmund Gwenn). Olivant's immortal classic furnishes screen fare to delight every audience.

GOOD: "Rifraff" (Pat O'Brien-Walter Slezak-Anne Jeffreys). Melodramatic adventure in Panama, satisfactorily seasoned with romance.

"Gunfighters" (Randolph Scott-Barbara Britton-Dorothy Hart). High class western action-drama that will score a bulls-eye with thrill-seekers.

"Seven Keys to Baldpate" (Phillip Terry-Jacqueline White-Eduardo Ciannelli). A time-tested favorite, screened for the fifth time, and still entertaining.

BEST PERFORMANCE: Edmund Gwenn in "Bob, Son of Battle."

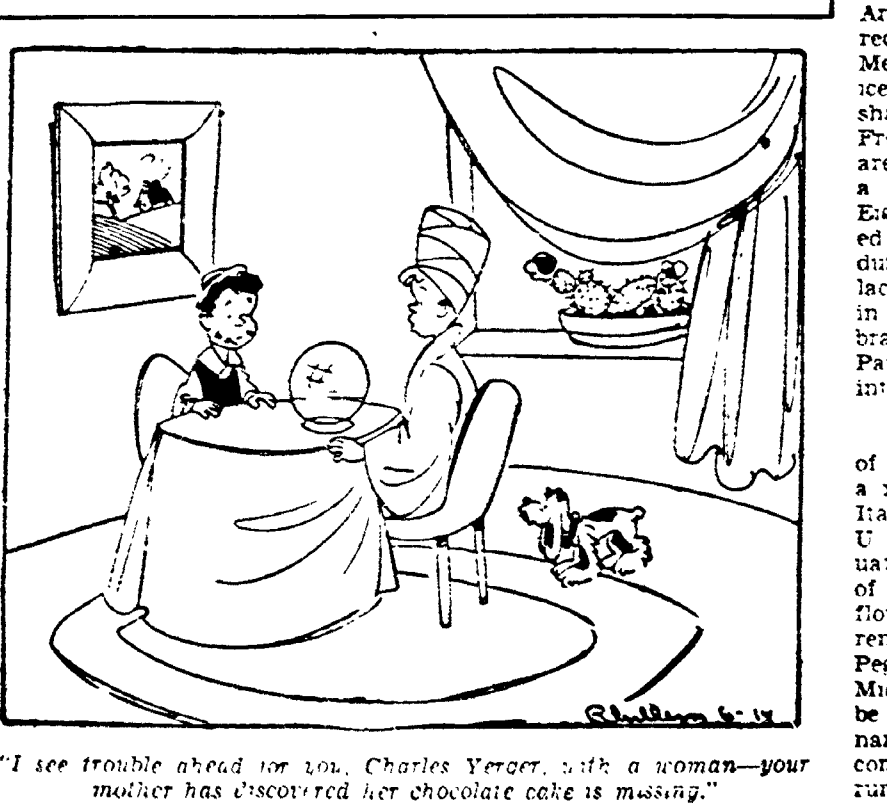

the return of his lost pooch, brought 300 people with stray dogs to his door. . . If that huge flying boat built by Howard Hughes and Henry Kaiser is offered for sale as surplus property by the government, there's a syndicate of top movie names waiting to buy it and convert it into a deluxe beach nite club.

Secretly married: John Fostini, radio actor, and Lydia Lewis, west coast opera singer. . . Stand-by for another big shakeup at MGM, with plenty of players slated for the guillotine.

News that Producer Sol Lesser will combine Robert Louis Stevenson's "Kidnapped" and "David Balfour" into one screen story sounds to me like bad news for the millions of Stevenson fans. It's true that "David Balfour" is a sequel to "Kidnapped," but unless the proposed picture is to be five or six hours long, it will be utterly impossible to use the story as it was conceived by the author. Perhaps Lesser's picture will be top-notch entertainment, but it won't be Stevenson. I, for one, am of the opinion that even though the copyright has expired, it's unethical to change a best-loved novel's plot. It's neither fair to the man who created it, nor to the readers who know and love it.

A lady columnist took time out the other day to criticize Sterling Hayden because he's decided to turn his back on movies in favor of a four-month honeymoon with his new bride. "Very foolish," said she. "After his long absence in the army, he should be concentrating on his career." Well, from where I sit, it looks like Hayden is showing a better sense of values than his critic. Putting career ahead of marriage has wrecked more Hollywood homes than any other factor. I'd like to congratulate Hayden, rather than criticize him, for being smart enough to realize that real success is as much a matter of the heart as it is of the pocketbook.

Broadway Bulletin Board

Jimmy Durante is doing nips-ups over a new dream girl—a pretty Hollywood office worker named Emily Jones. . . Michael O'Shea, whose wife won an uncontested divorce in Connecticut last week, will marry Virginia Mayo as soon as celluloid chores permit. . . Nanette Fabray, the musical comedy heroine, has had the unique plastic surgery job of the year—she had more nose added to her own! . . . Tommy Higgins II and the former Julia Donahue, of the five and ten clan, have Reno in the bean-o, friends hear. They were front-paged the other day when he became involved in a "big package" business that was under investigation by the authorities. Mildred Bailey is out of Plover hospital, much better. . . Irving Berlin's office boy, Nick Almenover—better known as the Mayor of Hanson's drug store—is on the verge of announcing his betrothal to Kansas Kelly, Broadway chorine. . . Lew Ayres and Audrey Totter have struck that spark.

A famous South-of-the-Border figure has his supporters going loco. Wants to divorce his wife and marry the 17-year-old daughter of one of his country's wealthiest citizens—and it's not the kind of a country you'd want to live in. Danny wanted to make jokes when they broke off relations with their agent, Eddie Sherman. They even tossed him out of his offices in the Lou Costello building. . . Warners are trying to lure Garbo back to the screen with a role opposite Errol Flynn. . . Candy Montgomery, the model, became Mrs. Joe Johnson last week. He's one of the features of "Three To Make Ready." . . Several major league magnates have private eyes checking on baseball stars who are studying to play for the Alcoholics Anonymous team.

Local legit managers are scrambling for the Broadway production rights to a play by Pablo Picasso. He calls it—hold on, now—"Desire Caught by the Tail." . . Lucille Ball spends her spare afternoons in Central park studying her Summer theater script. Most fans don't recognize her because she wears slacks and hides her amazing hair under a bandana. . . Just-returned travelers report that you can't buy a dress at any of the famous Paris dressmakers for less than $500. . . Even for Paree, that's stiff. . . Fabulous wrestler Strangler Lewis has turned literary. He's inscribing his biography. . . Recently divorced Vi Skelton (Taylor) will be on hand to greet Flickertown's bad boy, Lawrence Tierney, when California releases him from the hoosegow. They were a blazing romance before his incarceration. . .

A property settlement is holding up Anne Jeffreys' divorce plans. "She was recently a hit in 'Street Scene'." . . Meiba Welch, who sings in the Center city show, is swooning over Willard Marshall, the N. Y. Giants' outfielder. . . French reporters and magazine writers are giving Rita Hayworth the chill after a series of broken appointments. . . Each person, including some men, faint at the Ambassador theater last week during showings of "The Queen's Necklace"—always during the climax scene in which Vivian Romance is whipped and branded. . . Betty Hutton has given Paramount long-range warning that she intends to have another baby in 1948.

Author Richard Llewellyn was stripped of his cash, papers, tickets, et cetera by a robber while he was traveling through Italy. Had to burn the cables to the U. S. to extricate himself from the situation. . . Youka Troubetzkoy, brother of Barbara Hutton's latest price, has flown back from Paris to woo Fran Warren, Claude Thornhill's vocal. . . Peggy Hopkins Joyce's latest fancy is Michael O'Shea, the press agent—not to be confused with the actor of the same name. . . One of the big motion picture companies is the subject of a fantastic rumor. Said to be losing $400,000 a week.

Marriage Around World..

Tibet Custom Odd..

BUT WHY JUNE? — The weather being what it is, no one can be too sure just what June is doing. One thing, however, remains as true as the rise of the sun each morning: weddings will be busting out all over as the song puts it. Probably a lot of people have tried to find out why June is the lucky month, or goat, depending who is worrying about it. It seems to have something to do with the fact that flowers bloom in the Spring and brides need wreaths and people started getting wed long before the day of the hot house and year-around orchids. . .

IN OTHER DAYS or in other countries, the situation seems to become involved. Maybe it is just in this country that we make mountains out of molehills. Basically, there seem to be three types of marriage. Polygyny, polyandry and monogamy. Monogamy is what fills the June air in this country with the clang of wedding bells. There is nothing about it unknown to the average Joe Doakes so we can skip quickly to the other two forms of marriage. . .

FIRST OF ALL "polygyny" is the scientific name for what we call polygamy. Incidentally, that is the word that the Greeks had for it. Translated into our less picturesque language, it boils down roughly to something like "many wives." Among more barbaric peoples, a man's wealth is measured by the number of wives he has. Another cause was found to be — to quote the Encyclopedia Americana — "the military honor of wife capture and the economic value of women (or wives) as laborers." Has our civilization gone too far with monogamy? . . .

OF THE THREE forms of marriage outlined, the case of polyandry is most unusual. It is practiced at present only in Tibet. The word polyandry is another of those Greek things, this time meaning "many husbands." The reasons given for the narrow confines in which this form of marriage is found, is that the instinctive jealousy of the male works against it. One of the reasons that this practice is used in Tibet is that the land is so barren it is difficult for one man to support a wife alone, so the women marry several men and they all contribute to her support. . .

AS FAR AS the age limits, no civilization ever ruled that a woman was too old to take the great step. Moreover there is practically no point in some countries, even today, when a woman is too young to marry. Half the female population of British India is married before 15 years of age. Often the girl after being married lives with her own parents until reaching maturity. But in Bengal—famed for its tigers—girls commence their married life at the age of nine years. In the United States, either civil or religious marriages are available in most states. As for "the age of consent," however, there seems to be considerable variation by states. The age for males ranging from 16 to 21, and for females from 14 to 18. Where there are no statutes, the canonical prescription of a minimum of 12 for females and 14 for males still holds good.

The Worry Clinic

By DR. GEORGE W. CRANE

DANNY is next to the youngest of our five children.

He wasn't quite two years old when my sister visited us. She had a little girl sitting on her lap, and she was sitting on the floor. . .

After that I heard this little girl crying. When I looked into the room, Danny was standing in front of her, poking his finger at her eyes, and apparently deliberating in his cruelty.

After sharply cautioning him, I went back to my study where I was writing a week's set of these case records.

Again I heard screaming and crying, so I quickly investigated, and found Danny pounding his little cousin on the head with his fist. He was seemingly enjoying her wails.

Now how do you readers account for his behavior? Why didn't he treat his 9-month-old brother in that fashion? Does he love his brother and dislike strangers?

Danny didn't love his baby brother especially. Basically, he felt a great deal of irritation because Mrs. Crane necessarily devoted much time to the latter.

Danny wanted all of his mother's attention. For it is human nature to resent seeing somebody else claim favors which once were ours. Danny was no exception. His fundamental dislike for babies thus cropped out in his pommeling his baby cousin.

But he had been taught not to poke his finger in his little brother's eye. Besides, he had learned that it wasn't good policy to pound him with his fist or strike him with a club or even a toy.

However, his irritation at children younger than himself still persisted. His little cousin thus offered a fine chance to vent this pent-up grudge. As soon as possible, he poked his finger in her eye, and I am sure relished her wails.

One of my former students told me about such an example that occurred in her own home. Her little nephew, aged 4, was seated on the floor, playing contentedly.

His 18-months-old sister toddled over, seized a wooden block, and pounded him on the head. The first time it happened, the boy looked astonished.

The second block led to anger. When his little sister struck him a third time, he jumped up, with revenge in his eye. But before he could reach her, the grandfather interposed, and said, "Wait a minute, Buddy. You mustn't strike your little sister. Men don't strike women, you know."

"Oh, I'm not going to strike her, Grandpa," the boy instantly replied as he continued in her direction "I'm just going to kick the tar out of her."

Danny would never love his younger brother except for the fact that he persecuted him to hold the bottle, push the pram, and do similar things for the baby which made Danny feel "big."

Thus, his baby brother, made Danny feel delighted and important, so Danny ultimately projected his pleasure upon the baby, which is how all love arises, whether between sweethearts or brothers and sisters.

DEATHS - FUNERALS

VICTOR L. STUFFLET, 82, died Thursday night in his home, 1539 NORTH TENTH STREET, READING. He was a son of the late John and Sallie (Landis) Stufflet, and was a member of Longswamp Union church.

A son, John, lost his life in World War I. Surviving are his widow, Rosa (Dierolf) Stufflet; one nephew, and one niece.

Services will be held Tuesday at 1:30 p.m. at the house. Further services will be conducted at Longswamp Union church, the Rev. Wilson H. Hartzell, officiating. Interment will be made in the adjoining cemetery. A Bechtelsville funeral director has charge.

IDA M. (STEWART) GRAVER, wife of the late James Maurice Graver, of 4113 NORTH BROAD STREET, PHILADELPHIA, died Thursday. Her husband preceded her in death by one year. Both were former residents of Boyertown.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. from a funeral home in Philadelphia at Park and Lehigh avenues. Further services and interment will take place in Union cemetery, Boyertown at 2 p.m. The Rev. Dr. Ross Stover, Philadelphia, will officiate.

The humble TODAY that makes TOMORROW GREAT...

The humble TODAY that makes TOMORROW GREAT...

You could see this scene in a hundred thousand churches next Sunday—but would you grasp its mighty import?

If you saw a lump of iron ore would you envision bridges of steel spanning America's rivers... if you saw a gushing oil well would you envision a million cars speeding along our highways... if you saw a bag of seed would you envision golden acres awaiting the harvest?

It is the humble today that makes tomorrow great. For few gifts have come to us ready-made. God has made every blessing a challenge... every resource a responsibility.

Our children are our greatest challenge—our paramount responsibility. For God's—and the world's—tomorrow will spring from their humble today. The Church understands that!

Your child—every child—needs the Church!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is the source of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend service regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church on Sunday and read your Bible daily.

Circus Atmosphere Prevails at Dance Sponsored by Junior Service League

A circus atmosphere prevailed at the June Pete ball staged last night in Brookside Country club by the Junior Service League.

Painted murals of fat ladies, the thin man, and a huge picture of a man selling balloons, covered the side walls while all sizes and shapes of balloons were floating on the ceiling. Walls of a small room off the dance floor were covered with pictures of life size snakes and pink elephants.

Completing the scene were yards and yards of pennants and Ken Nichols and members of his orches-tra, who played for continuous dancing from 9 to 2 o'clock, dressed in clown suits.

Approximately 250 members of the social set, attended the formal affair, a highlight of the social events staged during the Spring season.

Due to the affair being held

June 13 in honor of the 13th an-niversary of the league, the 113th persons who arrived was awarded a prize.

At midnight, during intermis-sion, a delicious supper was served. Charities who will receive ben-efits from the affair include the Family Welfare association, Visiting Nurse organization, YWCA, YMCA, Pottstown Public Library, Pottstown hospital, Memorial hos-pital, Camp and Hospital commit-tee of Southeastern District of Pennsylvania, Salvation Army, Red Cross, Pottstown Community Chest, and Maternal Health clinic.

Miss Eleanor Weikel and Miss Rita Bartholomew were co-chair-men of the affair.

Preceding the dance Miss Mary Porter, league member, entertained at a cocktail party at her Sum-mer home in Ringing Rocks Park.

Shirley Weiner's Recent Marriage Is Announced

Announcement was made yester-day of the marriage of Mrs. Shirley Weiner, Franklin apartments, to Robert N. Pitelson, Philadelphia.

The ceremony was performed the past Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the home of the bride's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Leblang, 1326 South street.

Rabbi Emil Schorsch officiated at the double ring ceremony which was performed amid a setting of snap-dragons, suetpeas, red and white roses, palms and candelabras.

The bride was attired in an aqua sheer wool suit, brown and white hat of meline and veiling, and an orchid corsage.

The couple was attended by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Seffron, Philadel-phia, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

Following a reception for 40 guests at Lakeside Inn, the couple left for Philadelphia and will leave this week for Lake Placid, N. Y., where they will spend the remainder of the month.

In the 10 southern early peach states, the season has been reported about four weeks later than last year and about two weeks later than usual.

'Ford Couple, Former Neiffer Neighbors, To Mark Golden Anniversary Today
Two neighbors who learned to know and love each other at Neiffer 50 years ago, will observe their Golden Wedding anniversary today, when Mr. and Mrs. Frederick R. Grebe, 525 Walnut street, Royersford, will be host to their friends and relatives at an "Open House" from 2 to 6 p. m.
Mr. and Mrs. Grebe, well-known couple, have lived here the past 44 years.
Both lived near Jackson's store, Neiffer, over 50 years ago, when they first met. Grebe, 73, and the former Ella K. Gebhart, 69, were united in marriage in Pottstown Reformed church Monday, June 14, 1897, by the late Rev. L. Kryder Evans, then pastor.
They went to housekeeping at Zieglerville, later lived at Neiffer and then moved to Pottstown, coming to Royersford from Pottstown in 1903, when Grebe, a painter and paperhanger, obtained work with the late Aaron Freed. He formerly was in the same business at other places before coming here, and in all has worked at his trade for 54 years. He conducted his own business here many years.
He has not been able to work for the past year because of his health and an operation.
Aside from his trade, Grebe became widely known as a bandman, being one of few to master the old Sousaphone (double bass horn), with its conspicuous large bell, which attracted the eye many years ago. He played the double bass horn ten years.
During his career as a bandman, he played in any number of organizations, including Zieglerville and other points along the Perkiomen; Pottstown band, Humane band of Royersford, the old Sixth Regiment band of Frankford, Philadelphia. He played with the latter organization for the inauguration of former President William H. Taft.
Both Mr. and Mrs. Grebe are members of Royersford Grace Lutheran church. Mrs. Grebe is active in all church organizations and also is a member of the Woman's club of Royersford, Legion aides, Ladies' auxiliary of Humane Fire company and Rivercrest auxiliary.
They have four daughters, M. Alice Grebe, 1525 Main street, Trappe, principal of Schwenksville high school; Miss Edna Grebe, member of the faculty of Royersford high school; Pauline, wife of Charles Rimmel, Royersford R.D., and Grace, wife of Dr. Dominic Cavallieri, a physician of Somerville, suburb of Boston, Mass.
Descendants also include two grandsons, Charles and James Rimmel, and a granddaughter, Carol Cavallieri, who was born the past April 17.

Jack Kurtz's Single in 7th Gives Amvets a 6-6 Deadlock With The Doeblers Diecasters

Big Ed Sovia was just one out away from sending the undefeated Amvets into defeat but a line drive single to right field by the league's leading hitter, Jack Kurtz, sent Manager Mickey Missimer across the dish from third and the Doeblers Diecasters had to be content with a 6-6 tie and a replay later in the season.

FELLER HALTS ATHLETICS AS YANKEES LOSE

PHILADELPHIA, June 13 (AP)—Two home runs by Joe Gordon and one by Ken Keltner carried Bob Feller to his eighth victory tonight as the Cleveland Indians defeated the Philadelphia Athletics 5-4, before 28,628. Feller, who fanned 12 to bring his season's strike out total to 87, was relieved in the eighth by Ed Killeman.

Dick Metz, Chick Harbert Tie For Lead at the Halfway Mark Of the National Open Tourney

ST. LOUIS, June 13 (AP)—Dick Metz of Chicago and Melvin (Chick) Harbert of Detroit stood a stroke in front of the field tonight at the halfway point in the National Open golf championship, and the rush of the homebred stars to have themselves fitted for plus-fours appeared at least to have been stemmed.

Metz, the firmly-muscled ex-Texan, and Harbert, one of the game's longest drivers, were deadlocked with record-equaling totals of 139 after two rounds of the par-71 St. Louis country club course. Only one blow behind was Lew Worcham of Oakmont, Pa., at 140.

Joe Kirkwood, whose 145 in the National Open, leaves him still in contention, will be here in Pottstown, Sunday, June 22 and will play a round of golf and will also give a trick shot demonstration on the Brookside Country club course.

Jim Ferrier, of Chicago, former Australian amateur champion, also was a consistent player today as he bagged a 70, one stroke better than yesterday's 71, one under par for the halfway distance.

Edward S. (Porky) Oliver of Wilmington, Del., who started with a 70, and Alfred L. Smith, an unknown from Danville, Va., who slackened to a 73, were tied at 143, two strokes behind with 145 were Paul Runyan of Pasadena, Calif., and Joe Kirkwood, Abington, Pa.

George Munger Hurls Cardinals To 3-0 Victory

ST. LOUIS, June 13 (AP)—Behind the brilliant three-hit pitching of George (Red) Munger, St. Louis Cardinals opened a long stand by blanking their old foes, the Brooklyn Dodgers, 3 to 0, tonight before 25,000 spectators. Ron Northey drove in two runs, one with his fifth homer in the third inning.

Cardinalettes List Two Games While Boys Meet Allentown Foe

The Pottstown Cardinalettes step up a bracket this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock when they take on the Norristown Elks (men) at Norristown. Tomorrow, the Cardinalettes, winner of six straight, have another crack at the 1946 State champion Bethlehem Armorettes. The game is listed for 2:30 o'clock at Allentown. The Pottstown Cardinals take on Hoover's of Allentown in a Bi-State League clash, tomorrow at 3:30 o'clock on Fisher's Field, Hanover street and Farmington avenue. Hoover's dropped a 4-0 game to the locals in the first meeting.

Sunday School Loop Contest Postponed; Bethany Wins Game

The Sunday School league game scheduled for last night between Emmanuel and Presbyterian was postponed because neither team could field a ball club at game time and the contest will have to be replayed at a future date. The game was forfeited to Bethany in the Recreation Junior league and in the practice game which followed. Bethany chalked up a 14-1 victory which would put it in the books either way. Jack Harper and Bob Klein, both standouts on the Penn State golf team, are Purple Heart veterans.

COUNCIL MEETING —

who said it would be illegal to spend money from the borough treasury to have the people ballot on this issue.

Waddell interjected that in his opinion the people don't care what system is used, just so they receive good service.

When Creswell made a motion that the contract system be adopted the vote was unanimous in favor of the motion. The following voted aye:

William Bernhart, Bush, Creswell, Gerald J. Daly, Leon Dearoff, Allen K. Davidheiser, Elmer Fegley, Dr. William L. Franck, Leonard Matfield, E. B. Heck, J. Wayne Knause, Peter J. Lawler, William Romich, Charles Satterthwaite, Twaddell, Ralph Weiss and Yergey, 17. Absent were Leo Spahr, Mahlon Frick and William H. Reifsnnyder.

Regarding the method of collecting fees for service, Creswell maintained that the best method would be to have the collectors handle the cash. He said that it would not be proper to levy a tax to pay for the service as property owners could then defray the expense of operation.

Bush also said the tax levy system would not be just. Satterthwaite said there are 6200 collection units in the borough and that if the average weekly fee is only 30 cents the present cost of collection is over $100,000. He claimed the money should be collected through borough hall on the quarterly basis. He said the bills could be sent out with the water bills.

Hatfield said this might mean that the property holders would get the garbage collection bills as they will get the water bills.

Creswell's motion that the money be collected through borough hall with bidders for contracts also bidding on making collections as an alternate was passed without any dissenting votes.

Creswell said there is an advantage in separating garbage from ashes, such as is done in Spring City, Roversford and Hamburg.

Hatfield made a motion that bids be received on combined ashes and garbage with an alternate bid for their separation, was passed unanimously.

Borough Manager Dow I. Sears said that he will not proceed to advertise for bids as authorized by council. He will draw up rules and regulations which he will present to council for action in the near future.

Chairman Romich of the sewer committee made a motion that Plan B of Engineer George F. Shaner providing for the laying of sewer mains in the area bounded on the west by Hanover, on the east by Adams street and extending north from Prospect to Mervine street be adopted by council. The motion passed without any dissenting votes.

Sears pointed out that, in addition to this plan, supplementary work would cost about $50,000 in addition to the estimated cost of $175,000 for Plan B. This supplementary work would consist of the extension of the sewer line on Spruce street a short distance north of Lee avenue to Master street then to Hanover street.

Sears said this work might be done this year. He said a bank loan could be negotiated independent of the bond issue which will be needed for the larger program.

Daly said it is planned to divide the sewer extension program into five sections so that better progress can be made.

Sears said that the estimates on the costs of the extensive sewer program are only rough. He said it will take about four months to get complete plans from Shaner. He said the State Sanitary water board will defray half of the engineering costs.

The motion for laying sidewalks on West High street was made by Daly and passed without any comment.

IDEAL MINES TO BE CLOSED
HARRISBURG, June 13 (AP)—A $1,000,000 program to seal abandoned coal mines in Pennsylvania was passed today by the House and sent to Governor James H. Duff.

an opportunity to meet with the parties and assist them in reaching an agreement.

He requested a quick reply and assigned William Margolis, assistant director of the New York office of the conciliation service to help in the dispute.

Murray said that in view of the circumstances of the present maritime dispute he told the heads of the five maritime unions at a conference in his office that they have a perfect right to advance the cause of the people they represent.

"It is the opinion of the officers of the CIO that our unions are exactly right and that the CIO will grant them every possible degree of support in their effort to secure a satisfactory settlement," Murray said.

Labor department officials had hoped the dispute could be settled without a walkout.

Joseph Curran, head of the CIO National Maritime union, the seamen's outfit has filed a strike notice for June 22, but he indicated to reporters that if the contract expires June 15 without a new agreement the Sunday deadline would appear more important to the 90,000 members of his union than the June 22 deadline. Bridges already has agreed with the Waterfront Employers association on the West coast to extend the present contract for a full year without a raise but on condition that if the other maritime unions on the West coast do not get a similar contract extension Bridges can call out his longshoremen on three days notice.

Curran has been taking the initiative in negotiating for a new contract. He is demanding a substantial wage increase plus a 40-hour week at sea in place of the present 44 hours, a health and welfare fund, revision of the manning scales by which the size of crews are determined and a six-week vacation instead of the present three weeks off.

Joseph Selby, head of the ACA, said his union seeks a flat wage increase of 15 percent, in addition to the general demands of Curran's union.

Coupe Is Stolen Here, Found Later by Police

Harold Smith, Pottstown, RD 2, reported to police early yesterday morning his black coupe had been stolen while parked on Franklin street near Water. Later in the morning, Patrolman Robert Houser recovered the car. It was standing on High street in front of the post office building.

The coupe is a member of the Hly family.

guarantee a wage freedom to organize and bargain collectively without having a labor leader trust on him a responsibility and on pain of 15 m. in jail.

The bill also guarantees him Hartley said the right to Control actions of his labor representatives through periodic elections on union shop questions.

To know what the labor leader is doing how his dues are spent, how his union is run.

To work without first getting permission from labor bosses.

But all the labor barons' Hartley said objected to any corrective labor legislation.

"These labor barons" he said "would take no medicine of their own accord and so it becomes necessary for the Congress to administer it."

County Men Sentenced For Nylon Hosiery Thefts

By Staff Correspondent
NORRISTOWN, June 13 — Two

North Pennsylvanians were sentenced to the Eastern penitentiary for 2½ to 5 years by Judge Harold G. Knight today for their part in the theft of nylon hosiery from four small hosiery plants including the Roberts Hosiery mill, Tappe.

They are Nicholas Rocco Colmar, and Raymond G. Cassel, Lansdale. Both were ordered to pay the costs and fines of $10 each.

In imposing sentence Judge Knight termed Rocco the brains and Cassel, a "boob" in the burglaries.

local districts own ability to raise funds. At present grants range between $600 and $1800 a unit.

Gov. James H. Duff's budget provided $48,000,000 more than the $12,000,000 earmarked in 1945 for education to take care of the boosted enrollment.

Defending the school plan Sen. Paul L. Wagner, R-Schu. 12, who presented the chief majority argument in the school debate said: "Efficient progress is being done under the measure backed by the administration and 'any reasonable minded person must admit' it."

Averting the Republican party is fulfilling its campaign pledge "to the fullest extent possible with the money available." Wagner said Pennsylvania's program "would compare very favorably with other states in mandated salary schedules."

Boost Youth!

EVERYBODY, GET BEHIND THE PUSHMOBILE DERBY

HIGH STREET, WEDNESDAY EVENING, JULY 16, 1947

Fathers & Mothers

Here is a wonderful opportunity to get your boy interested in a youth project that is really worthwhile. The boys build their own pushmobiles, which teaches them to think, work things out, develop creative talents and to use their hands in planning and constructing their own vehicles. They race their own pushmobiles, which teaches them fair play and good sportsmanship as they compete for valuable prizes.

Encourage your boy to sign up today and begin work on his pushmobile today.

Hey, Fellers!

Build your own model of a powerful auto racer... Ride it yourself in a great, community-wide classic with hundreds watching you on High street.

Win one of the great awards offered. You and your buddy each can win a brand new bicycle. Runners-up get wrist watches. Other prizes will be given.

Get full information and specifications at Derby headquarters at 210 High street today!

Businessmen

Get behind this great youth movement. Help a boy to get the most out of life by enabling him to enter Pottstown's great derby classic.

Encourage boys to enter this event. Sponsor his entry by paying the cost of his materials—$16 is the most that can be spent on a racer.

Help your boys to construct their cars with advice and guidance... Be proud to be the sponsor of the winning car in Pottstown's great youth event.

Pennsburg Minister To Mark 50th Year Since Ordination

The 50th anniversary of the ordination of the Rev. William U. Kistler, pastor of the Pennsburg Lutheran church, will be observed at 10 a. m. in St. Mark's church, Pennsburg. The Rev. Dr. Earl S. Erb, son of St. Mark's church will preach.

On June 2, Dr. Erb received the degree of Doctor of Divinity from his Alma Mater, Muhlenberg college, in recognition of the able and extensive service which he has given for the Ministerium of Pennsylvania. He is secretary of the synod.

Harold Beahn, New York City vocalist, formerly of St. Mark's choir, a native of East Greenville, will be special soloist for the day. The senior choir under the direction of Mrs. Roger Kolb, and the junior choir under the direction of Mrs. Linwood Fox, will sing. Miss Eida Freed, organist, will preside at the console.

The Rev. Kistler was ordained on June 15, 1897 in Trinity church, Lancaster. This is Pastor Kistler's 44th year as pastor of the Pennsburg parish, which also includes St. John's, Spinnerstown, from 1904, and Zion, Zion Hill, since 1930.

Pastor Kistler, during his ministry, has confirmed at least seven young men who are now ministers of the Gospel, and at present there are three others in the Pennsburg parish who are students for the ministry. He confirmed also four persons who became ministers' wives.

He began his ministry in the Amityville-Friedensburg-Pricetown parish in Berks county.

Rev. Story to Address Evening Union Service

The Rev. Delaine E. Story, pastor, will address the third of a series of evening union services tomorrow night at 7:30 p. m. in the First Methodist church. His subject will be, "Have You Seen This?"

The scripture lesson will be read by the Rev. James D. Matthee, pastor of the Searles Memorial church, who also will offer prayer. Hymns will be sung by the Chancel choir of the First Methodist church. Churches participating in the choir of the First Methodist church, church, Searles Memorial church and the First Baptist church.

YOUR EYES

Dr. H. C. Baumann

This column is written by Dr. H. C. Baumann, Ophthalmologist, a competent authority on matters pertaining to eyesight.

Some forms of eye exercises (orthoptics) are beneficial to the eyes, but only when they follow personal examination by, and are performed under supervision of a specialist. Eye exercises which are prescribed by mail may be injurious or worthless.

For example, "mail order" eye exercises might be sold for conditions that are the result of, or associated with, diseased conditions that by no stretch of the imagination could be corrected by "exercising" the eyes. Mail order eye exercises which call for reading in a moving train, automobile, etc., are not beneficial and simply produce fatigue. Any exercises that involve looking at the sun are very dangerous to the internal structure of the eye.

If you have any questions concerning your eyes, address Dr. Baumann at 215 High Street, Pottstown, and your query will be answered through this column or by direct mail.

Schuylkill Haven Picked As Coal Laboratory Site

WASHINGTON, June 13 (AP)—Schuylkill Haven, Pa., was designated by the Senate appropriations committee today as the site for the Government's anthracite laboratory but the recommendation brought prompt protest from Senator Myers (D-Pa.).

Myers said he does not object to Schuylkill Haven as the location and will not oppose the committee's recommendation.
